Cancer and Young Adult Literature Stephen M. Zimmerly, 2024-12-20

This collection specifically and solely focuses on Young Adult literature texts where cancer plays a prominent role including widely read texts like John Green's The Fault in Our Stars Nicholas Sparks' A Walk to Remember and Jesse Andrews' Me and Earl and the Dying Girl. The chapters present a variety of arguments each developing a novel investigation into how these stories explore the effects cancer has on a person, a family, or on a relationship. As scientific studies continue to develop new understandings of the biology behind cancer and new sociological studies continue to uncover how a cancer diagnosis impacts the fabric of our culture, these collected essays continue to investigate how authors have woven cancer into the stories we write for young people. A number of distinct avenues are taken here arguing for new approaches in crafting narrative, deeper appreciation for family support networks, or their absence, and what literary criticism can uncover when applied to cancer narratives.

The Haters Jesse Andrews, 2016-04-05 Three teens flee jazz camp for a rock and roll road trip in this extremely entertaining novel by the New York Times bestselling author of Me and Earl and the Dying Girl. USA Today's Wes and his best friend Corey: jazz camp turns out to be lame. It's pretty much all dudes talking in Jazz Voice. But then they jam with Ash, a charismatic girl with an unusual sound, and the three just click. It's three and a half hours of pure musical magic, and Ash makes a decision: They need to hit the road. Because the road, not summer camp, is where bands get good. Before Wes and Corey know it, they're in Ash's SUV heading south, and The Haters. Summer of Hate Tour has begun. This is a groundbreaking young adult novel about music, love, friendship, and freedom, following a quest by three friends to escape the law long enough to play the amazing show they hope, but also doubt, they have in them. Hilarious. I laughed so hard I scared my cat off the couch multiple times. The New York Times' Terrific, Shocking, and funny, unsettling and charming. Roddy Doyle author of The Commitments. Both a classic road trip novel and a contemporary and inventive teen adventure, they play horribly at a Chinese food buffet, hang at a commune, and almost get shot twice. Issues of race, family, and socioeconomic status. Wes was adopted from Venezuela as a baby; Ash's mom is French, and her dad is a Brazilian billionaire serial philanderer, played subtly throughout the book. The Horn Book: It's downright hilarious when they riff on band names, new songs, or just living life. USA Today: Uproariously funny. Readers will be sucked into this story, a raunchy bromance in the vein of Superbad, which celebrates friendship and adventure. Effortlessly readable, deeply enjoyable. Booklist: starred review. Truly hilarious. Kirkus Reviews. Crash Course in Young Adult Services Sarah Flowers, 2017-10-10 Learn how to improve teen services in public libraries by better understanding teen development and having positive interactions with teens to provide appropriate and interesting collections and services A library can be a tremendous resource for teens one that helps them to learn about themselves and the world they live in But teenagers are intrinsically different from children and from adults and these critical developmental differences affect the ways they interact with others both in the world at large and in the library Serving teens effectively in the library requires a basic understanding of who teens are and the developmental tasks they face factors that affect all aspects of library service from the specific programs and services we offer to the ways that staff provide assistance to the teen who is seeking help at a library service desk This book enables library workers to better understand adolescent development which allows them to provide a positive library experience for teens Readers will learn how to supply excellent library services with and for teens including in the areas of collection development readers advisory reference and homework help programming and advocacy The book identifies the best ways to have positive interactions with teens in the library based on their mental development and details best practices for teen services The concluding section discusses advocating for teens with emphasis on their right to privacy and equal access to materials and services

The Atheist's Survival Guide: 35 Ways to Combat Religious Intolerance Martin Johnson, 2024-11-28 Don't just survive in a world of religious intolerance Thrive Are you an atheist agnostic or secular none who feels isolated and afraid of being ostracized or persecuted by radical religionists Are you a political progressive advocate for gender equality or member of the LGBTQ or neurodivergent communities who has often been accused of being irreligious and been accused of lacking morals and religious values by Christian nationalists and MAGA extremists Might you potentially be viewed as a threat to the rise of politicized religion that is sweeping the globe If so this guide is for you Don't be afraid Even in this era where religious and crypto religious extremists are seizing political power including in the pluralistic US and Western Europe we seasoned atheists are here to embrace and support you and we're growing in number This guide grounded in the spirit of humanism rationalism and empathy is geared toward the intellectually curious novice and religiously savvy secularist alike It offers thirty five actionable insights that can help you to foster mutual understanding and respect promote peaceful coexistence amid diversity and go into full survivalist or combat mode when necessary Testimonial Whether you're a brand new baby atheist struggling to make sense of it all or a battle hardened heretic increasingly alarmed by the ongoing political nightmare that is our current reality this handy guidebook has what you need to understand and fight against the threat of religious fascism or to survive under theocratic fascist oppression David Fitzgerald Author of Nailed and The Complete Heretic's Guide to Western Religion series including The Mormons and Jesus Mything in Action 20 years of independent cinema Carlos Augusto Dauzacker Brandão, 2021-03-10 Every January from 1996 to 2016 while I was suffering with summer in Rio I received snowy news from the Sundance Festival through Carlos Brandão and his partner Myrna In those 20 years Carlos and Myrna were my main source of information about independent world cinema It is a great joy to see all this material gathered in a book Carlos was a passionate researcher and along with Myrna an experienced reporter Their interviews and reports on films and directors that have passed through Sundance have the mark of someone who saw everything up close And knew how to tell it Carlos Alberto Mattos Film Critic When Robert Redford founded the nonprofit Sundance Institute in 1981 the intense creativity of American independent cinema in the 70 s was too distant The Festival came to redefine the characteristics of a cinema that was becoming more conservative and less daring as a reflection of the Reagan years Betting on risk and dissonant and plural voices Sundance knew how to reveal innovative directors and organize Script Development Programs in different parts of the world starting with Brazil The geopolitics of independent cinema would never be the same Sundance marked the resumption of Brazilian Cinema after the disastrous government of President Collor It was one of the first international festival to embrace our cinematography at that time and few critics and journalists followed this movement as closely as Carlos Augusto Brand o With his inseparable Myrna Carlos foresaw what was still under construction He covered the Festival from the start collecting precious interviews from young new comers I cannot remember Sundance without thinking about Carlos his remarks and always relevant and sensitive questions publishing stories that dimensioned the revival of Brazilian Cinema These testimonies comprise this precious 20 Years of Independent Cinema The interviews gathered here tell not only the story of the renaissance of independent cinema in different latitudes but also speak of the intense passion that Carlos had for cinema His texts make him both a witness and co author of a cinema in transformation

Walter Salles Film Maker      Character is Structure Ted Wilkes, Phil Hughes, 2023-03-09 This book seeks to reshape the way that writers think about constructing their story looking at the subject from the inside out Often practitioners and theorists examine work through the separate lenses of character and or structure and then bring them together Within this book authors Hughes and Wilkes argue that character is structure and one without the other makes for a dissatisfying narrative Through detailed case studies on films that span all genres from mainstream franchises like The Hunger Games 2012 2015 and Shrek 2001 2010 to art house films such as Toto Le Heros 1991 and Eraserhead 1977 the authors reveal the dramatic imperative behind the central choices or dilemmas faced by every protagonist in every classic feature length narrative They argue there is only one of five choices that any writer must make in inventing that key transition from the protagonist s ordinary world into the adventure that will form the heart of their story Using the universal language of folk and fairy stories this book gives writers and students a clear framework through which they can reference and improve their own storytelling In doing so it enables both the novice and experienced screenwriter to tell their story in the most authentic and impactful way while keeping their protagonist at the heart of the narrative

Biopolitical Disaster Jennifer L. Lawrence, Sarah Marie Wiebe, 2017-07-14 Biopolitical Disaster employs a grounded analysis of the production and lived experience of biopolitical life in order to illustrate how disaster production and response are intimately interconnected The book is organized into four parts each revealing how socio environmental consequences of instrumentalist environmentalities produce disastrous settings and political experiences that are evident in our contemporary world Beginning with

Portrait of the Artist as a Young Adult Lois Thomas Stover,Connie S. Zitlow,2013-10-30 Young adults often struggle with confusion or guilt because they perceive themselves as different from others especially their peers For some of these individuals the arts can help them cope with adolescent turmoil allowing them to express their emotions in poems stories painting songs and other creative outlets Sensitive teachers and parents know how important it is for young people to realize that they are not alone in their quest for self knowledge and finding their way in the world It can make a difference when readers find something in a book that helps them understand more about who they are and helps them understand others In Portrait of the Artist as a Young Adult The Arts in Young Adult Literature Lois Thomas Stover and Connie S Zitlow examine books in which the coming of age for young adults is influenced by the arts Stover and Zitlow consider the connection between the arts and a young person s developing sense of self the use of art to cope with loss and grief and how young adults can use art to foster catharsis and healing The young people in these books either identify as artists or use the arts in intentional ways to explore their identities They often have artistic gifts that make them stand outside the norms of teenage life yet those gifts also help them find a sense of community Artists considered in this book include painters photographers sculptors actors directors choreographers dancers composers musicians graffiti artists and others The books discussed also explore the ways adults can nurture the artist s development and understand the way young people sometimes use the arts to form their unique identity Included is an annotated bibliography organized by art discipline as well as an appendix about using the arts pedagogically making Portrait of the Artist as a Young Adult a valuable resource for educators parents librarians and young adults

Child Autonomy and Child Governance in Children's Literature Christopher Kelen,Bjorn Sundmark,2016-11-18 This book explores representations of child autonomy and self governance in children s literature The idea of child rule and child realms is central to children s literature and childhood is frequently represented as a state of being with children seen as aliens in need of passports to Adultland and vice versa In a sense all children s literature depends on the idea that children are different separate and in command of their own imaginative spaces and places Although the idea of child rule is a persistent theme in discussions of children's literature or about children and childhood the metaphor itself has never been properly unpacked with critical reference to examples from those many texts that are contingent on the authority and or power of children Child governance and autonomy can be seen as natural or perverse it can be displayed as a threat or as a promise Accordingly the child rule motif can be seen in Robinsonades and horror films in philosophical treatises and in series fiction The representations of self ruling children are manifold and ambivalent and range from the idyllic to the nightmarish Contributors to this volume visit a range of texts in which children are in various ways empowered discussing whether childhood itself may be thought of as a nationality and what that may imply This collection shows how representations of child governance have been used for different ideological aesthetic and pedagogical reasons and will appeal to scholars of children's literature childhood studies and cultural studies

Social Life in the Movies James J. Dowd, 2020-10-27

Through an analysis of hundreds of Hollywood movies this book examines some of the most contentious social issues of our time including racism social inequality sexism and gerontophobia With studies of some of the most enduring film genres in Hollywood's history including romantic films such as Casablanca war movies from World War II through the Iraq and Afghanistan conflicts alienation films including Five Easy Pieces and Lost in Translation the school movie from Goodbye Mr Chips to other films set in academia including Dead Poets Society and Dangerous Minds the book outlines and demonstrates the sociological approach to viewing films and highlights the socially conservative nature of much Hollywood movie production which draws on common stereotypes and reinforces dominant cultural values but is also capable of challenging and serving to change them

The New River Controversy, A New Edition Thomas J. Schoenbaum, 2015-03-10 This updated edition of the 1979 original covers the landmark struggle to save the New River from damming in the 1970s The grassroots movement emphasized the river's cultural and historical value rather than narrow environmental issues and became one of the great victories of the environmental movement This edition also includes a new epilogue examining the current ecological status of the New River and the ongoing impact of the original conservation efforts in the face of new environmental threats The 1979 edition won the Weatherford Award presented by Berea College and the Appalachian Studies Association
