Kruitvat Kaukasus Nic Vanderscheuren,2004      Frontiers of Fear Peter Boomgaard,2008-10-01 For centuries reports of man eating tigers in Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore have circulated shrouded in myth and anecdote This fascinating book documents the big cat human relationship in this area during its 350 year colonial period re creating a world in which people feared tigers but often came into contact with them because these fierce predators prefer habitats created by human interference Peter Boomgaard shows how people and tigers adapted to each other s behavior each transmitting this learning from one generation to the next He discusses the origins of stories and rituals about tigers and explains how cultural biases of Europeans and class differences among indigenous populations affected attitudes toward the tigers He provides figures on their populations in different eras and analyzes the factors contributing to their present status as an endangered species Interweaving stories about Malay kings colonial rulers tiger charmers and bounty hunters with facts about tigers and their way of life the book is an engrossing combination of environmental and micro history      Tvoyage van Mher Joos van Ghistele ... Joos Van Ghistele,1572      Britannica Enciclopedia Moderna Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc,2011-06-01 The Britannica Enciclopedia Moderna covers all fields of knowledge including arts geography philosophy science sports and much more Users will enjoy a quick reference of 24 000 entries and 2 5 million words More then 4 800 images graphs and tables further enlighten students and clarify subject matter The simple A Z organization and clear descriptions will appeal to both Spanish speakers and students of Spanish      Albert of Aachen's History of the Journey to Jerusalem ,2017-03-02 Albert of Aachen s History of the Journey to Jerusalem presents the story of the First Crusade 1095 1099 and the early history of the crusader states 1099 1119 Volume 1 The First Crusade is a long and richly detailed account of events well known from the reports of participants such as Fulcher of Chartres Raymond of Aguilers and the anonymous author of the Gesta Francorum but told from a strikingly different perspective Albert did not go on crusade himself but gathered reports and anecdotes from those who did and wove them into narrative that foregrounds the activities of Peter the Hermit Godfrey of Bouillon Baldwin of Boulogne and their followers His History therefore offers a counter balance and sometimes a corrective to the established view Susan B Edgington s English translation has been widely praised following its first publication in the Oxford Medieval Texts series and is here presented with a new introduction and updated notes and bibliography      Britannica Concise Encyclopedia Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc.,2008-05-01 Britannica Concise Encyclopedia is the perfect resource for information on the people places and events of yesterday and today Students teachers and librarians can find fast facts combined with the quality and accuracy that have made Britannica the brand to trust A tool for both the classroom and the library no other desk reference can compare      Von Aachen bis Zypern Hugo Kastner,2007      Constantine and the Captive Christians of Persia Kyle Smith,2016-01-19 This book demonstrates that the history of Christianity in the fourth century has been written mainly on the basis of Greek ecclesiastical histories and Syriac martyrdom narratives that date to decades even centuries after the fact By closely analyzing these sources which often exhibit conflicting religious political and hagiographical agendas an evolving portrait of the first Christian emperor begins to emerge This portrait of Constantine is useful not for re constructing the events of the fourth century but for understanding how the Syriac Christians of Roman Mesopotamia and Sasanian Persia used Constantine and the Christians of the West to fashion multiple political and religious identities over a prolonged period of change Provided by publisher Early Christian Remains of Inner Mongolia Tjalling H. F. Halbertsma,2008-08-31 The early Christian presence in Inner Mongolia forms the subject of this book These Nestorian remains must primarily be attributed to the ng t a Turkic people closely allied to the Mongols Writing in Syriac Uighur and Chinese scripts and languages the Nestorian ng t drew upon a variety of religions and cultures to decorate their gravestones with crosses rising from lotus flowers dragons and Taoist imagery This heritage also portrays designs found in the Islamic world Taking a closer look at the discovery of this material and its significance for the study of the early Church of the East under the Mongols the author reconstructs the Nestorian culture of the ng t The reader will find many newly discovered objects not published before At the same time this study demonstrates how many remaining objects were appropriated and in many cases vanished after their discovery I find myself obliged to make a special effort to avoid over praising this book a treasure house of information drawn on a comprehensive array of sources some of them hitherto untapped and splendidly presented on the important subject of Christian presence in East Asia DENIS SINOR Indiana University Journal of Asian History 43 1 2009 Etymology of meanings. Brief etymological dictionary of planetary toponyms. At the origins of civilization Alexander Tokiy,2021-01-13 The author reveals the amazing secrets of toponyms The languages of the mankind grew out of an ancient community but now their kinship is barely visible However the preserved names that the ancestors gave to the features of the landscape make it easy to realize how the names Rome and Paris Iowa and Missouri London and the Thames the Baikal the Dardanelles and others appeared Reading will help to see the world around you in a new way and awaken interest to the truth City, Citizen, Citizenship, 400-1500 Els Rose,Robert Flierman,Merel de Bruin-van de Beek,2024-04-26 This open access book explores how medieval societies conversed about the city and citizen in texts visual imagery and material culture It adopts a long term interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspective bringing together contributions on the early high and later Middle Ages covering both the medieval East and West and representing a wide variety of disciplinary angles and sources The volume is first and foremost about medieval perceptions and their articulation in text image and material form The principal focus is not on cities or citizenship per se but on those who used such concepts wrote about them and visualized and depicted them At the same time the book seeks to address why the city remained such a salient concept also in non urban contexts the periphery the desert the monastery and how medieval thinking on the ideal city and civic community could involve denunciation of the earthly city and its institutional trappings It thus pushes scholarly boundaries but also seeks to escape deeply entrenched notions of citizenship as either a form of political participation or legal status Tvoyage van Joos van Ghistele, twelcke mach anders
