Smith, Bhoomi K. Thakore, 2016-04-20 This volume explores and clarifies the complex intersection of race and media in the contemporary United States Due to the changing dynamics of how racial politics are played out in the contemporary US as seen with debates of the post racial society as well as the changing dynamics of the media itself new vs old media debates an interrogation of the role of the media and its various institutions within this area of social inquiry is necessary Contributors contend that race in the United States is dynamic connected to social economic and political structures which are continually altering themselves The book seeks to highlight the contested space that the media provides for changing dimensions of race examining the ways that various representations can both hinder or promote positive racial views considering media in relation to other institutions and moving beyond thinking of media as a passive and singular institution Chapters 3 and 13 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under

The SAGE Handbook of Gender and Communication Bonnie J. Dow, Julia T. Wood, 2006-07-19 Publisher Description

Struggles for Equal Voice Yuya Kiuchi, 2012-10-15 While previous scholarship on African Americans and the media has largely focused on issues such as stereotypes and program content Struggles for Equal Voice reveals how African Americans have utilized access to cable television production and viewership as a significant step toward achieving empowerment during the post Civil Rights and Black Power era In this pioneering study of two metropolitan districts Boston and Detroit Yuya Kiuchi paints a rich and fascinating historical account of African Americans working with municipal offices local politicians cable service providers and other interested parties to realize fair African American representation and media ownership Their success provides a useful lesson of community organizing image production education and grassroots political action that remains relevant and applicable even today

Race and Masculinity in Contemporary American Prison Novels Auli Ek, 2020-10-28 This book offers an interdisciplinary analysis of how contemporary American prison narratives reflect and produce ideologies of masculinity in the United States and in so doing compellingly engages popular culture in order to demonstrate the profound ways in which implicit understandings of prison life shape all Americans and their reactions to people both incarcerated and not

Crime and Media in Contemporary France Deborah Streifford Reisinger, 2007 Reisinger examines contemporary French society's relationship with violence in an era of increased media dominance The study's innovative and interdisciplinary approach integrates media cinema and literary studies to analyze how crime news functions as a site of discursive struggle By situating these crime stories in a larger historical and political context she analyzes how media and politicians use the crime story as a tool for upholding the dominant ideology

Media Power in Hong Kong Charles Chi-wai Cheung, 2016-02-12 Studies of Hong Kong media primarily examine whether China will crush Hong Kong's media freedom This book however traces the root problem of Hong Kong media back to the colonial era demonstrating that before the resumption of Chinese sovereignty there already existed a uniquely Hong Kong brand of hyper marketized and oligopolistic media system The system encouraged by the British colonial government was subsequently aggravated by the Chinese government This peculiar system is highly susceptible to state intervention and structurally disadvantaged dissent and marginal groups before and after 1997 The book stresses that this hyper marketized media system has been constantly challenged Through a historical study of media stigmatization of youth this book proposes that over the years various counter forces have penetrated the structurally lopsided Hong Kong media independent public popular and news media all make occasional subversive alliances to disrupt the mainstream and news media with a strong liberal professionalism provide the most subversive space for challenging cultural hegemony The book offers an alternative and fascinating account of the dynamics between hegemonic closure and day to day resistance in Hong Kong media in both the colonial and post colonial eras arguing that the Hong Kong case generates important insights for understanding ideological struggles in capitalist media     Maid for Television L. S. Kim, 2023-08-11 Honorable Mention Association for Asian American Studies Book Award in the Media Performance and Visual Studies category Maid for Television examines race class and gender relations as embodied in a long history of television servants from 1950 to the turn of the millennium Although they reside at the visual peripheries these figures are integral to the idealized American family Author L S Kim redirects viewers gaze towards the usually overlooked interface between characters which is drawn through race class and gender positioning Maid for Television tells the stories of servants and the families they work for in so doing it investigates how Americans have dealt with difference through television as a medium and a mediator The book philosophically redirects the gaze of television and its projection of racial discourse     The Handbook of Visual Culture Ian Heywood, Barry Sandywell, 2017-04-20 Visual culture has become one of the most dynamic fields of scholarship a reflection of how the study of human culture increasingly requires distinctively visual ways of thinking and methods of analysis Bringing together leading international scholars to assess all aspects of visual culture the Handbook aims to provide a comprehensive and authoritative overview of the subject The Handbook embraces the extraordinary range of disciplines which now engage in the study of the visual film and photography television fashion visual arts digital media geography philosophy architecture material culture sociology cultural studies and art history Throughout the Handbook is responsive to the cross disciplinary nature of many of the key questions raised in visual culture around digitization globalization cyberculture surveillance spectacle and the role of art The Handbook guides readers new to the area as well as experienced researchers into the topics issues and questions that have emerged in the study of visual culture since the start of the new millennium conveying the boldness excitement and vitality of the subject     Communications/Media/Geographies Paul C. Adams, Julie Cupples, Kevin Glynn, André Jansson, Shaun Moores, 2016-09-19 Although there are human geographers who have previously written on matters of media and communication and those in media and communication studies who have previously written on geographical issues this is the first book length dialogue in which experienced theorists and researchers from these different fields address each other directly and engage in conversation across traditional academic boundaries The result is a compelling discussion with the authors setting out statements of their positions before responding to the arguments made by others One significant aspect of this discussion is a spirited debate about the sort of interdisciplinary area that might emerge as a focus for future work Does the already established idea of communication geography offer the best way forward If so what would applied or critical forms of communication geography be concerned to do Could communication geography benefit from the sorts of conjunctural analysis that have been developed in contemporary cultural studies Might a further way forward be to imagine an interdisciplinary field of everyday life studies which would draw critically on non representational theories of practice and movement Readers of Communications Media Geographies are invited to join the debate thinking through such questions for themselves and the themes that are explored in this book for example of space place meaning power and ethics will be of interest not only to academics in human geography and in media and communication studies but also to a wider range of scholars from across the humanities and social sciences      Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies Ellis

Cashmore,2004-03-01 Developed from the critically acclaimed and commercially successful Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations now in its fourth edition Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies has been assembled by a world class team of international scholars led by Ellis Cashmore to provide an authoritative single volume reference work on all aspects of race and ethnic studies From Aboriginal Australians to xenophobia Nelson Mandela to Richard Wagner sexuality to racial profiling the Encyclopedia is organized alphabetically and reflects cultural diversity in a global context The entries range from succinct 400 word definitions to in depth 2000 word essays to provide comprehensive coverage of all the key terms concepts and debates important figures both historical and contemporary landmark cases historical events Although unafraid to engage with cutting edge theory the Encyclopedia is uncluttered by jargon and has been written in a lucid facts fronted style to offer an accessible introduction to race and ethnic studies The Encyclopedia is also fully cross referenced and thoroughly indexed with most entries followed by annotated up to date suggestions for further reading to guide the user to the key sources It is destined to become an essential resource for scholars and students of race and ethnic studies as well as a handy reference for journalists and others working in the field      Shifting Nicaraguan Mediascapes Julie Cupples, Kevin

Glynn,2017-12-09 This book explores the mediated struggles for autonomy land rights and social justice in a context of growing authoritarianism and persistent coloniality in Nicaragua To do so it draws on in depth fieldwork analysis of media texts and decolonial and other cultural theories There are two main threats to the authoritarian rule of the Nicaraguan government led by Daniel Ortega the first is the Managua based NGO and civil society sector led largely by educated dissident Sandinistas and the second is the escalating struggle for autonomy and land rights being fought by Nicaragua s indigenous and Afro descended inhabitants on the country s Caribbean coast In order to confront these threats and it seems secure indefinite political tenure the government engages in a set of centralizing and anti democratic political strategies characterized by secrecy institutional power grabs highly suspect electoral practices clientelistic anti poverty programmes and the control through purchase or co optation of much of the nation s media The social movements that threaten Ortega s rule are however operating through dispersed and topological modalities of power and the creative use of emergent spaces for the circulation of counter discourses and counter narratives within a rapidly transforming media environment The primary response to these mediated tactics is a politics of silence and a refusal to acknowledge or respond to the political claims made by social movements In the current conjuncture the authors identify a struggle for hegemony whose strategies and tactics include the citizenship stripping activities of the state and the citizenship claiming activities of black indigenous and dissident actors and activists This struggle plays out in part through the mediated circulation and counter circulation of discourses and the infrastructural dynamics of media convergence      Black Sexualities Juan Battle, Sandra L.

Barnes,2009-11-24 Why does society have difficulty discussing sexualities Where does fear of Black sexualities emerge and how is it manifested How can varied experiences of Black females and males who are lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT or straight help inform dialogue and academic inquiry From questioning forces that have constrained sexual choices to examining how Blacks have forged healthy sexual identities in an oppressive environment Black Sexualities acknowledges the diversity of the Black experience and the shared legacy of racism Contributors seek resolution to Blacks understanding of their lives as sexual beings through stories of empowerment healing self awareness victories and other historic and contemporary life course panoramas and provide practical information to foster more culturally relative research tolerance and acceptance

Lockstep and Dance Linda

G. Tucker, 2009-09-18 Lockstep and Dance Images of Black Men in Popular Culture examines popular culture's reliance on long standing stereotypes of black men as animalistic hypersexual dangerous criminals whose bodies dress actions attitudes and language both repel and attract white audiences Author Linda G Tucker studies this trope in the images of well known African American men in four cultural venues contemporary literature black focused films sports commentary and rap music Through rigorous analysis the book argues that American popular culture's representations of black men preserve racial hierarchies that imprison blacks both intellectually and physically Of equal importance are the ways in which black men battle against respond to and become implicated in the production and circulation of these images Tucker cites examples ranging from Michael Jordan's underwear commercials and the popular Barbershop movies to the career of rapper Tupac Shakur and John Edgar Wideman's memoir Brothers and Keepers Lockstep and Dance tracks the continuity between historical images of African American men the peculiar constitution of whites' anxieties about black men and black men's tolerance of and resistance to the reproduction of such images The legacy of these stereotypes is still apparent in contemporary advertising film music and professional basketball Lockstep and Dance argues persuasively that these cultural images reinforce the idea of black men as prisoners of American justice and of their own minds but also shows how black men struggle against this imprisonment     In the Eye of the Beholder Gary Richard Edgerton, Michael T. Marsden, John G. Nachbar, 1997 Scholars from communication studies as well as film and television studies address a variety of texts from Ken Burns's The Civil War to the midnight cult film The Rocky Horror Picture Show Part one focuses on perennial subject areas related to authorship and reception Part two addresses an assortment of postmodern and multicultural screen representations paying closest attention to matters of gender race ethnicity and the disabled Paper edition unseen 24 95
