David Forbes,2019-05-14T00:00:00Z Mindfulness a way to alleviate suffering by realizing the impermanence of the self and our interdependence with others has been severed from its Buddhist roots In the late stage capitalist neoliberal solipsistic West it becomes McMindfulness a practice that instead shores up the privatized self and is corporatized and repackaged as a strategy to cope with our stressful society through an emphasis on self responsibility and self promotion Rather than a way to promote human development and social justice McMindfulness covertly reinforces neoliberalism and capitalism the very self promoting systems that worsen our suffering In Mindfulness and Its Discontents David Forbes provides an integral framework for a critical social moral mindfulness that both challenges unmindful practices and ideas and provides a way forward He analyzes how education curricula across North America employ mindfulness to help students learn to succeed in a neoliberal society by enhancing the ego through emphasizing individualistic skills and the self regulation of anger and stress Forbes argues that mindfulness educators instead should uncover and resist the sources of stress and distress that stem from an inequitable racist individualistic market based neoliberal society and shows how school mindfulness programs can help bring about one that is more transformative compassionate and just Messy Methods in Researching Religion
