Human Rights provides a comprehensive introduction to the current field useful for both students and researchers and defines the agenda for future research Feminist Approaches to Media Theory and Research Dustin Harp,Jaime Loke,Ingrid Bachmann,2018-07-12 Feminist Approaches to Media Theory and Research tackles the breadth and depth of feminist perspectives in the field of media studies through essays and research that reflect on the present and future of feminist research and theory at the intersections of women gender media activism and academia The volume includes original chapters on diverse topics illustrating where theorization and research currently stand with regard to the politics of gender and media what work is being done in feminist theory and how feminist scholarship can contribute to our understanding of gender as a mediated experience with implications for our contemporary global society It opens for discussion how the research theory and interventions challenge concepts of gender in mediated discourses and practices and how these fit into the evolving state of contemporary feminisms Contributors engage with discussions about contemporary feminisms as they are understood in media theory and research particularly in a field that has changed rapidly in the last decades with digital communication tools and through cross disciplinary work Overall the book illustrates how the politics of gender operate within the current media landscapes and how feminist theorizing shapes academic inquiry of these landscapes

Misogyny and Media in the Age of Trump Maria B. Marron,2019-12-19 Misogyny and Media in the Age of Trump argues that misogyny has increased in the United States under President Trump and that although women s experiences under misogyny are by no means universal patriarchal social and institutional systems facilitate gender based hostility Systemic misogyny and power inequities are at the root of male on female bullying the bullying and harassment of non hegemonic males and other minorities as well as sexual harassment rape and even murder Given the prevalence of misogyny and its deep rootedness in religion it is argued that the social contract needs to be rewritten in order to have a just gender and race equitable society Misogyny creates a clash of cultures between men and women hegemonic and non hegemonic males feminists and INCELS the powerful and the oppressed natives and marginalized minorities the conservative and the liberal progressive This book explores misogyny across media ranging from political and editorial cartoons to news sport film television social media especially Twitter and journalistic organizations that address gender inequities The authors argue that the current era of conservative populism ushered in by President Donald Trump and the Republicans constitute the social cultural and political environment that have given rise to the MeToo Movement and Fourth Wave Feminism

Sexualized Media Messages and Our Children Jennifer W. Shewmaker,2015-02-24 This provocative book takes a look at children s consumption of sexualized media messages while providing parents teachers and professionals with strategies for abating their influence In this eye opening book experienced child psychologist Jennifer W Shewmaker contends that the manner in which a child is raised influences how they respond to media messages particularly those shaded by sexual overtones This text takes a hard look at the impact of advertisements products and entertainment on a child s psyche and offers strategies for helping kids become critical active media consumers Drawing from research in a wide variety of disciplines this book explores the interpersonal factors within children s lives that impact how they learn to process sexualized media messages The book argues that an increase in marketing to children along with media based fabrications of beauty masculinity and femininity impact the confidence and character of young children who are often greatly affected by what they see and hear The author shares invaluable tips for promoting strengths in children and adolescents of both genders and presents the protective influence of communities to help children dismiss distorted media images True
