Media Rituals Media Rituals:

Media Rituals Nick Couldry, 2005-07-08 Media Rituals rethinks our accepted concepts of ritual behaviour for a media saturated age It connects ritual directly with questions of power government and surveillance and explores the ritual space which the media construct and where their power is legitimated Drawing on sociological and anthropological approaches to the study of ritual Couldry applies the work of theorists such as Durkheim Bourdieu and Bloch to a number of important media arenas the public media event reality TV Webcam sites talk shows and docu soaps media pilgrimages the construction of celebrity In a final chapter he imagines a different world where the media s ritual power is less because the possibilities of participation in media production are more evenly shared Media, Ritual and Identity James Curran, Tamar

Liebes, 2002-09-11 Media Ritual and Identity examines the role of the media in society its complex influence on democratic processes and its participation in the construction and affirmation of different social identities It draws extensively upon cultural anthropology and combines a commanding overview of contemporary media debates with a series of fascinating case studies ranging from political ritual on television to broadcasting in the third world Media, Ritual and Identity James

Curran, Tamar Liebes, 2002-09-11 Media Ritual and Identity examines the role of the media in society its complex influence on democratic processes and its participation in the construction and affirmation of different social identities It draws extensively upon cultural anthropology and combines a commanding overview of contemporary media debates with a series of fascinating case studies ranging from political ritual on television to broadcasting in the third world Theorizing

Volume one of Theorizing Rituals assembles 34 leading scholars from various countries and disciplines working within this field The authors review main methodological and meta theoretical problems part I followed by some of the classical issues part II Further chapters discuss main approaches to theorizing rituals part III and explore some key analytical concepts for theorizing rituals part IV The volume is provided with extensive indices Reality TV Susan Murray, Laurie Ouellette, 2009 A collection of essays which provide a comprehensive picture of how and why the genre of reality television emerged what it means how it differs from earlier television programming and how it engages societies industries and individuals Ritual

Matters Ute Husken, Christiane Brosius, 2012-08-21 This book explores the interaction of rituals and ritualised practices utilising a cross cultural approach It discusses whether and why rituals are important today and why they are possibly even more relevant than before Being Present: Mobile Cinema in Kham Tibetan Areas Jianbin Guo, Jingjing Chen, 2024-07-31

This book presents the restoration of rural mobile cinema network in the Great Triangle region at the conjunction of Yunnan Sichuan and Tibet in China in the new century which has added a new chapter to the long standing complex relationship between cinema and social change Based on five years of multi sited fieldwork abundant interviews and oral history narratives this work shows the entanglement of the State the projectionists and local film viewers in the historical and social context in a holistic analytic framework By using the key concept of being present to examine the tangling relations between the actors in mobile cinema as social practice the work argues that mobile cinema and contemporary Chinese society are mutually constructed in both textual and practical level Communication Yearbooks Vols 6-33 Set Various,2021-12-02
