Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process Mexican muralist, international Marxist Curtis Swope, 2024-10-29 David Alfaro Siqueiros was perhaps the most important communist painter of the twentieth century This book the first sustained engagement with Siqueiros's work in the English language focuses on the artist's late murals which are both aesthetically innovative and politically provocative It places Siqueiros in an international context revealing that the dogmatism he has been charged with was in reality a complex phenomenon It provided a foundation for rather than an obstacle to his efforts to create an art embedded in the day to day concerns and theoretical debates of the world wide mass movement he saw himself as a part of Mexican Muralism Alejandro Anreus, Leonard Folgarait, Robin Adèle Greeley, 2012-09-08 In this comprehensive collection of essays three generations of international scholars examines Mexican muralism in its broad artistic and historical contexts from its iconic figures to their successors in Mexico the United States and across Latin America Mexican Painters MacKinley Helm, 2012-03-13 Definitive introduction to art and artists of Mexico during great artistic movements of the 20s and 30s Discussion of Rivera Orozco Siqueiros Galvan Cant Meza many others History tradition social movements etc 95 illustrations Three Mexican Painters, 1948* Mexican Mural Art Roberto Cantú, 2020-11-24 This volume collects the work of prominent art critics art historians and literary critics who study the art lives and times of the leading Mexican muralists Jos Clemente Orozco Diego Rivera and among other artists David Alfaro Siqueiros Written exclusively for this book in English or in Spanish and with a full length introduction in English the selected essays respond to a surging interest in Mexican mural art bringing forth new interpretations and perspectives from the standpoint of the 21st century The volume's innovative and varied critical approaches will be of interest to a wide readership including professors and students of Mexican muralism as well as the speculative reader public libraries and art galleries around the world

Land of Smoke and Mirrors Vincent Brook, 2013-01-22 Unlike the more forthrightly mythic origins of other urban centers think Rome via Romulus and Remus or Mexico City via the god Huitzilopochtli Los Angeles emerged from a smoke and mirrors process that is simultaneously literal and figurative real and imagined material and metaphorical physical and textual Through penetrating analysis and personal engagement Vincent Brook uncovers the many portraits of this ever enticing ever ambivalent and increasingly multicultural megalopolis Divided into sections that probe Los Angeles's checkered history and reflect on Hollywood's own self reflections the book shows how the city despite considerable remaining challenges is finally blowing away some of the smoke of its not always proud past and rhetorically adjusting its rear view mirrors Part I is a review of the city's history through the early 1900s focusing on the seminal 1884 novel Ramona and its immediate effect but also exploring its ongoing impact through interviews with present day Tongva Indians attendance at the 88th annual Ramona pageant and analysis of its feature film adaptations Brook deals with Hollywood as geographical site film production center and frame of mind in Part II He charts the events leading up to Hollywood's emergence as the world's movie capital and explores subsequent developments of the film industry from its golden age through the so called New Hollywood citing such self reflexive films as Sunset Blvd Singin in the Rain and The Truman Show Part III considers LA noir a subset of film noir that emerged alongside the classical noir cycle in the 1940s and 1950s and continues today The city's status as a privileged noir site is analyzed in relation to its history and through discussions of such key LA noir novels and films as Double Indemnity Chinatown and Crash In Part IV Brook examines multicultural Los Angeles Using media texts as signposts he maps the history and contemporary situation of the city's major ethno racial and other minority groups looking at such films as Mi Familia Latinos Boyz n the Hood African Americans Charlotte Sometimes Asians Falling Down Whites and The Kids Are All Right LGBT
