

The background of the cover is a painting of a person, likely a deity or a yogi, wearing a vibrant red robe. The person's hands are positioned in specific mudra (gesture) positions. The upper hand is held near the face, with fingers curled in a way that suggests a gesture of blessing or teaching. The lower hand is held lower, with fingers spread and palm facing upwards. The skin of the hands and arms is painted with soft, realistic tones, while the red robe has deep, saturated hues with visible folds and highlights. The overall style is that of a classical oil painting, with visible brushstrokes and a sense of depth and texture.
