The Routledge Handbook of Landscape and Food is intended as a first port of call for scholars and researchers seeking to undertake new work at the many intersections of landscape and food. Each chapter provides an authoritative overview a broad range of pertinent readings and references and seeks to identify areas where new research is needed though these may also be identified in the many fertile areas in which subjects and chapters overlap within the book.

Cultural Flows in High-End Cuisine Christel Lane, M. Pilar Opazo, 2024-07-18 Focusing on high end cuisine this book examines the flows of culinary knowledge from culturally peripheral locations to two cities at the global center London and New York. Through the voices of chefs and other professionals in the industry this book invites readers to rethink our understandings of high end and ethnic cuisines as well as the conventions and principles that shape the contemporary field of gastronomy and fine dining. It examines a broad range of cuisines including Peruvian Korean Mexican Malaysian Senegalese West African Thai Chinese and Indian and conveys the chefs voices as they strive to elevate their cuisines through discursive and material means including the shaping of menus and restaurant decor. While the main focus falls on chefs as the producers of high end cuisines this book also gives consideration to their consumers that is cosmopolitan diners in the two global cities and to the influence of culinary intermediaries judging and legitimizing their high end status. Theoretically this book contributes to the debate on cultural globalization. It undertakes a study of hitherto rarely examined cultural counterflows or reverse cultural globalization and analyzes both the precipitants of this occurrence and the effects of cultural counterflows on both Western global cities and the home countries of chefs. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of food studies food cultures cultural globalization and culinary studies.

To Catch a Thief David Dodge, 2025-04-01 It takes a thief Le Chat The Cat an infamous thief has come out of retirement and is again liberating expensive jewelry from wealthy tourists on the French Riviera. Or is it a copycat who is stealing fortunes? John Robie thought he had left his larcenous past behind. Once responsible for a string of daring thefts and escapes he was caught and sent to prison just before the outbreak of World War II. Freed during the German occupation of France Robie joined the French Resistance and received unofficial amnesty after the war ended. He retired to a simple life in the country where he befriended the local commissaire Oriol and tended his gardens. Now it's 1951 and someone has been at work using his old MO. When the police come to arrest him Robie escapes to Cannes. There he reconnects with his former comrade Bellini who convinces Robie to help catch the copycat. Disguised as a pudgy middle aged American businessman Robie scouts the local nightclubs and casinos and tries to outthink the new thief. When he meets Francie Stevens the daughter of a wealthy tourist she becomes Robie's unwelcome ally and together they hatch a dangerous plan to catch the thief at a gala party. But soon they both realize that Robie really is a thief at heart. With Oriol and the police on his trail will he escape capture? Will the real thief be caught? And will Robie give up the thief?
