American Presidential Candidate Spouses Laurel Elder, Brian Frederick, Barbara Burrell, 2018-03-20 The book offers a comprehensive analysis of public opinion toward presidential candidate spouses over the course of three decades, drawing on multiple theoretical frameworks including the concept of new traditionalism and a plethora of empirical data to explore why some spouses engender greater support than others and what these reactions reveal about the American public and the gendered nature of the American presidency. Recognizing that presidential candidate spouses are important but understudied political actors, this book provides extensive analysis of public evaluations of Bill Clinton and Melania Trump during the 2016 presidential election, as well as the presidential candidate spouses in the 1992 and 2012 elections and places public reaction to these individuals in historical context. The book considers important trends in U.S. elections, including party polarization from the distinctive vantage points of candidate spouses and explores the symbolic importance of historic firsts, including the first African American candidate spouse and the first male candidate spouse. No other work provides a systematic exploration of public opinion towards candidate spouses as distinct political entities across the modern political era. How to Find the Right One and Make It Last! Charles A. Johnson, 2012-04-24 Let me assure you that there is nothing wrong with you. We all want that special someone in our lives. But isn't it odd that one of life's most important lessons, How To Find The Right One Make It Last, tends to receive the least amount of focus? It's no wonder why we have so little success attracting the love, passion, romance, and fun that we all need and desire. This book will give you the necessary confidence and skills to find someone who really cares about you and ignites the fires deep within your soul. The problem for many busy and successful people is that they do not know where to find and meet the right partners, how to approach dating, or what it takes to build and sustain a healthy, loving relationship. To address these issues, I have taken a unique approach and have written this book about real people like you who struggle with finding love and the right companionship. Many who have used my techniques have been able to find happy, rewarding relationships. This book provides real-world experiences and proven dating strategies and techniques. It's a guide that can be used to change your life and bring you the romance and love you've always wanted. Inside this book, there is a plan that shows you where to find the best potential partners, how to attract the right partner, and determine if you've found the right one. How to plan, create, and enjoy romantic fun dates. How to build the confidence to take charge of your personal life and make your happiness a priority. If you are looking for help finding the right one or looking for

African American Males and Education T. Elon Dancy II,M. Christopher Brown,2012-10-01 African American Males in Education Researching the Convergence of Race and Identity addresses a number of research gaps This book emerges at a time when new social dynamics of race and other identities are shaping but also shaped by education Educational settings consistently perpetuate racial and other forms of privilege among students personnel and other participants in education For instance differential access to social networks still visibly cluster by race continuing the work of systemic privilege by promoting outcome inequalities in education and society The issues defining the relationship between African American males and education remain complex Although there has been substantial discussion about the plight of African American male participants and personnel in education only modest attempts have been made to center analysis of identity and identity intersections in the discourse Additionally more attention to African American male teachers and faculty is needed in light of their unique cultural experiences in educational settings and expectations to mentor and or socialize other African Americans particularly males
