O Westport Light Asia Minor:

O Westport In The Light Of Asia Minor Paul Durcan, 2011-08-31 O Westport in the Light of Asia Minor was first published in a tiny edition in Dublin in 1975. It was Paul Durcan's first fully fledged collection and already displays an astonishingly mature visionary power shot through with the surrealism and heart breaking comedy that have since become his hallmark. It won him the Patrick Kavanagh Award. Now Durcan's readers can discover what they have been missing. The poems are printed in the order he originally intended and the volume concluded with six poems from his very first collaborative collection Endsville 1967 with Brian Lynch. Poetry in Contemporary Irish Literature Michael Kenneally, 1995 This is the second of four collections of essays published under the general title Studies in Contemporary Irish Literature which are devoted to critical analysis of Irish writing since the 1950s. Essays in this collection establish some of the defining characteristics of contemporary Irish poetry, examine common features of several groups of poets and present focused analyses of twelve individual poets. The contributors are Elmer Andrews, Rand Brandes, Rory Brennan, Terence Brown, Richard Allen Cave, Tom Clyde, Gerald Dawe, Peter Denman, Maurice Elliott, Eamon Grennan, Edna Longley, Caoimhin MacGiolla, Leith Kathleen McCracken, Peter McDonald, Ron Marken, Gerardine Meaney, Dennis O'Driscoll, Bernard O'Donoghue, Alan Peacock, Linda Revie, Robert Tracy, Stan Smith and Clair Wills. Snail In My Prime Paul Durcan, 2011-06-30 Since the publication of his first book in 1967, Paul Durcan has made satirical, celebratory and extraordinarily moving poetry out of his country's fortunes and misfortunes. His readings are legendary and each new collection from his collaboration with Brian Lynch, Endsville 1967 to Daddy Daddy winner of the 1990 Whitbread Poetry Award, Crazy about Women 1991 and Greetings to Our Friends in Brazil 1999, has borne out the truth of Ezra Pound's dictum that literature is news that stays news. This book contains Durcan's own selection from his work. It is a literary milestone that has set the seal on his reputation as a poet of international standing. Modern Irish Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez, 1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940, the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating. The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature, some of whom are counted among the world's greatest authors. The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland's literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past. James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value. Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Friel, Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland. Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers, including Samuel Beckett, William Trevor, Patrick Kavanagh, Medbh McGuckian, Sean O'Casey, J. M. Synge and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill. Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives. Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author's career, a discussion of major works and themes, an overview of the author's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume The Cambridge Companion to Irish Poets Gerald Dawe,2018 A fresh accessible and authoritative study that conveys the richness and diversity of Irish poets their lives and times The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton,Alan Gillis,2012-10-25 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry consists of 40 essays by leading scholars and new researchers in the field Beginning with W B Yeats the figure who towers over the century's poetry it includes chapters on the major poets to have emerged in Ireland over the last 100 years

Paul Durcan this book deals thematically with the dominant concerns evident from his first solo collection O Westport in the Light of Asia Minor published in 1975 up to and including The Days of Surprise published in 2015 His work is marked by an unnerving emotional honesty and a recurring desire to undermine the pomposity of an Ireland struggling under the weight of inherited inconsistencies One of the central arguments here is that Durcan has captured more than any other poet of his generation the complexities and contradictions inherent in Ireland's emergence from the early difficult decades of independence The complex relationship between the public and private in his poetry is also explored as well as the poet's unflinching examination of his deepest personal relationships

The Berlin Wall Cafe Paul Durcan, 2011-06-30 This was the collection with which Durcan broke through to the huge and appreciative audience he enjoys today In the first part are poems of great satirical comedy and also of great passion and indignation and in the second part poems about the break up of a marriage so intense they would hurt if they weren't also possessed of the healing gifts of truthfulness and humour In The Berlin Wall Caf Durcan has located that space between the walls and barriers societies and individuals erect a no man's land of the free imagination where we meet as the vulnerable and comical human beings we are It contains some of his very best work

80 at 80 Paul Durcan, 2024-09-12 A new selection of Paul Durcan's finest poems published in celebration of his 80th birthday He has written immortal poems I revere him Michael Longley For fifty years the poet Paul Durcan has explored and questioned a world both real and imagined Steeped in the goings on of Ireland and preoccupied with its concerns he has delighted enriched and unsettled his readers His prodigious output of more than twenty collections bursts with poems that are courageously personal and passionately spiritual a body of work that contains multitudes The great enemy of art is the ego says Durcan It keeps getting in the way One needs the ego to disappear so that I become you I become the people walking up and down the street First published in 1967 Durcan remains the most of companionable of poets His vivacity and ability to surprise has never been clearer than in this new selection of eighty of his finest poems published in celebration of his 80th birthday EDITED BY NIALL MACMONAGLE WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY COLM TOIBIN

Sub-versions Ciaran Ross, 2010 From Swift's repulsive shit flinging Yahoos to Beckett's dying but never quite dead moribunds Irish literature has long been perceived as being synonymous with subversion and all forms of subversiveness But what constitutes a subversive text or a subversive writer in twenty first century Ireland The essays in this volume set out to redefine and rethink the subversive potential of modern Irish literature Crossing three central genres one common denominator running through these essays whether dealing with canonical writers like Yeats Beckett and Flann O'Brien or lesser known contemporary writers like Sebastian Barry or Robert McLiam Wilson is the continual questioning of Irish identity Irishness going from its colonial paradigm and stereotype of the subaltern in MacGill to its uneasy implications for gender representation in the contemporary novel and the contemporary drama A subsidiary theme inextricably linked to the identity problematic is that of exile and its radical heritage for all Irish writing irrespective of its different genres Sub Versions offers a cross cultural and
