Media Effects

Jennings Bryant, Mary Beth Oliver, 2009-01-13 With contributions from some of the finest scholars in the discipline Media Effects serves not only as a comprehensive reference volume for media effects study but also as an exceptional textbook for advanced courses in media effects. Covering the breadth of the media effects arena, this third edition provides updated material as well as new chapters focusing on effects of mobile media and other technologies. As this area of study continues to evolve, Media Effects will serve as a benchmark of theory and research for current and future generations of scholars.

Communication Yearbook 24 William Gudykunst, 2012-03-22 The Communication Yearbook annuals publish diverse state of the discipline literature reviews that advance knowledge and understanding of communication systems processes and impacts across the discipline. Sponsored by the International Communication Association, each volume provides a forum for the exchange of interdisciplinary and internationally diverse scholarship relating to communication in its many forms. This volume reissues the yearbook from 2001.

The Handbook of Communication Science and Biology Kory Floyd, René Weber, 2020-05-07 The Handbook of Communication Science and Biology charts the state of the art in the field, describing relevant areas of communication studies where a biological approach has been successfully applied. The book synthesizes theoretical and empirical development in this area thus far and proposes a roadmap for future research. As the biological approach to understanding communication has grown, one challenge has been the separate evolution of research focused on media use and effects and research focused on interpersonal and organizational communication, often with little intellectual conversation between the two areas. The Handbook of Communication Science and Biology is the only book to bridge the gap between media studies and human communication, spurring new work in both areas of focus. With contributions from the field's foremost scholars around the globe, this unique book serves as a seminal resource for the training of the current and next generation of communication scientists and will be of particular interest to media and psychology scholars as well.

Communication Yearbooks Vols 6-33 Set Various, 2021-12-02 The Communication Yearbook annuals, originally published between 1977 and 2009, publish diverse state of the discipline literature reviews that advance knowledge and understanding of communication systems processes and impacts across the discipline. Topics dealt with include Communication as Process, Research Methodology in Communication, Communication Effects, Taxonomy of Communication, and European Communication Theory. Information Systems Division, Mass Communication Research, Mapping the Domain of Intercultural Communication, Public Relations, Feminist Scholarship, Communication Law and Policy, Visual Communication, Communication and Cross Sex Friendships Across the Life Cycle, Television Programming and Sex Stereotyping, Intercultural Communication, Training, Leadership and Relationships, Media Performance Assessment, Cognitive Approaches to Communication.

Interpreting Television News Gabi Schaap, 2009-12-15 Television news range among the most extensively investigated topics in communication studies. The book contributes to television news research by focusing on whether and how news viewers who watch the same news program form similar or different interpretations. The author develops a novel concept of interpretation based on cognitive complexity research He strongly argues that qualitative and quantitative research methods work best if they complement one another Serious Games Ute Ritterfeld,Michael Cody,Peter Vorderer,2009-09-10 The central purpose of this book is to examine critically the claim that playing games can provide learning that is deep sustained and transferable to the real world Communication Research Measures II ,2009 Expanding and building on the measures included in the original 1994 volume Communication Research Measures II A Sourcebook provides new measures in mass interpersonal instructional and group organizational communication areas and highlights work in newer subdisciplines in communication including intercultural family and health It also includes measures from outside the communication discipline that have been employed in communication research The measures profiled here are the best of the best from the early 1990s through today They are models for future scale development as well
