Media Studies A Reader 3rd Edition:

Media Studies Sue Thornham, Caroline Bassett, Paul Marris, 2009 Why are some people more capable than others? What are the reasons for someone gaining unusual abilities or special expertise or being especially creative? What has to happen in order for a young person to become a child prodigy or genius? How can we help today's children to reach high levels of ability and to shine in the arts or the sciences in sports or games or to excel in other fields of expertise? The Psychology of High Abilities explains how when and why people acquire such special expertise and illuminates ways to make it possible for larger numbers of young people to extend their capabilities. Examining how and why people differ in their capabilities, it investigates the actual causes underlying impressive accomplishments and achievements. The volume reveals the kinds of influences that contribute to high abilities and provides practical insights into the most effective ways for extending the abilities of young people and creating higher levels of expertise.

Media Studies Paul Marris, Sue Thornham, 2000-03 Media Studies A Reader provides a thorough introduction to the full range of theoretical perspectives on the mass media from the past thirty years. Ranging from the arguments between the American mass communication tradition and the Europe centered Frankfurt School of the 1940s to the analyses of communication technologies by Marshall McLuhan and Raymond Williams in the 1960s, Media Studies A Reader maps the mass media field, its varied and often conflicting histories and its current debates. Sixty five articles provide comprehensive coverage of all the main theorists and approaches. The first half, Studying the Media, explores in detail three core elements of media studies: production and regulation of mass media, media texts and reception and consumption of media. The second half brings together concrete examples of how theoretical debates can be realized in a series of case studies on soap operas, the news and advertising. A general introduction and introductions to each section summarize and contextualize the debates. Contributors include Theodor W. Adorno, Marshal McLuhan, Raymond Williams, Stuart Hall, Annette Kuhn, Jürgen Habermas, John Fiske, Richard Dyer, Niki Strange, Danae Clark, Angela McRobbie, Bill Nichols, Lynne Joyrich, David Morley, Ien Ang, Janice Radway, Henry Jenkins, Tania Modleski, Anne McClintock, Sadie Plant, Media Technologies and the Digital Humanities in Medieval and Early Modern Studies, Katharine D. Sobehrad, 2023-03-17 Through a multidisciplinary collection of case studies, this book explores the effects of the digital age on medieval and early modern studies. Each case study reveals the diversity of medieval media and technology and challenges readers to consider new types of literacy competencies as scholarly rigorous methods of engaging in pre-modern investigations of materiality. Essays in the first section engage in the examination of medieval media mediation and technology from a theoretical framework while the second section explores how digitization smart technologies digital mapping and the internet have shaped medieval and early modern studies today The book will be of interest to students in undergraduate or graduate intermediate or advanced courses as well as scholars in medieval studies art history architectural history medieval history literary history and religious history Mental Illness in Popular Media Lawrence C.
