

Steps 4 and 5: Prepare for Scoring and Score

Group Norming Sessions for NYC Performance Assessments*:

Schools should conduct norming sessions after administering but before scoring the assessment in order to ensure that all teachers have a common understanding of the rubric and increase fairness of the scoring process.

Group norming sessions should follow this process (approx. 2-3 hours):

Step 1: Review the rubric and discuss expected performance at each performance level for each rubric trait.

Step 2: Review annotated sample student work and discuss the evidence for each score.

Step 3: Individually score one EOY assessment, then discuss as a group the evidence for each score.

Step 4: Collectively score several students' NYC Performance Assessments and come to consensus on a score for each trait. The scorer ID for these collectively scored papers can be 999999.

Norming scoring practices are also recommended for Running Records and FAST.
