Objects Of Knowledge New Research In Museum Studies:

Objects of Knowledge Susan Pearce, 2010-07-15 Volume 1 in a series designed to act as a forum for the dissemination and discussion of new research currently being undertaken in the field of Museum Studies The series aims to cover the whole museum field and to broadly address the history and operation of the museum as a cultural phenomenon The papers published are of a high academic standard and are also intended to relate directly to matters of immediate museum concern The publication aims to fill a major gap in the present scope of museum based literature This volume is concerned with the ways in which meaning is created through museum objects and the processes which this involves The papers however adopt a wide diversity of stances ranging widely across the field some take a broadly theoretical line and others examine specific areas like museum education and the relationship of museums to native peoples The volume concludes with a Review Section covering recent books exhibitions and conferences     A Bibliography of Museum Studies Simon J. Roberts,2014-07-15 From Knowledge to Narrative shows that museum educators professionals responsible for making collections intelligible to viewers have become central figures in shaping exhibits Challenging the traditional scholarly presentation of objects educators argue that rather than transmitting knowledge museums displays should construct narratives that are determined as much by what is meaningful to visitors as by what curators intend Lisa C Roberts discusses museum education in relation to entertainment as a tool of empowerment as a shaper of experience and as an ethical responsibility The book argues for an expanded role for museum education based less on explaining objects than on interpreting narratives      International Encyclopedia of Information and Library Science John Feather,Paul convey powerful symbolic meanings This cultural turn away from the object as a thing in itself has placed museums at the centre of debates about public culture citizenship inclusion and repatriation Museums are becoming increasingly reflexive given the awareness of the social and political role they serve and their ability to reflect the problems of our time Gordon Fyfe shows how and why this reflexivity creates a need for historical perspective on current practices on the one hand museums are enmeshed in a changing world and on the other hand they exhibit change At their best museums help us to see that everything is on the move and that change is the natural order of things Accessibly written this is the go to introduction for scholars and students of museum studies arts and cultural management and heritage studies
