Torque ,2008-11 Singapore's best homegrown car magazine with an editorial dream team driving it We fuel the need for speed Homecomings Yoshikuni Igarashi,2016-09-06 Soon after the end of World War II a majority of the nearly 7 million Japanese civilians and servicemen who had been posted overseas returned home Heeding the call to rebuild these veterans helped remake Japan and enjoyed popularized accounts of their service For those who took longer to be repatriated such as the POWs detained in labor camps in Siberia and the fighters who spent years hiding in the jungles of islands in the South Pacific returning home was more difficult Their nation had moved on without them and resented the reminder of a humiliating traumatizing defeat Homecomings tells the story of these late returning Japanese soldiers and their struggle to adapt to a newly peaceful and prosperous society Some were more successful than others but they all charted a common cultural terrain one profoundly shaped by media representations of the earlier returnees Japan had come to redefine its nationhood through these popular images Yoshikuni Igarashi explores what Japanese society accepted and rejected complicating the definition of a postwar consensus and prolonging the experience of war for both Japanese soldiers and the nation He throws the postwar narrative of Japan's recovery into question exposing the deeper subtler damage done to a country that only belatedly faced the implications of its loss Ancient and Traditional Foods, Plants, Herbs and Spices used in Cancer Rajkumar Rajendram,Victor Preedy,Vinood Patel,2023-10-11 The use of different foods herbs and spices to treat or prevent disease has been recorded for thousands of years Egyptian papyrus hieroglyphics and ancient texts from the Middle East have described the cultivation and preparations of herbs and botanicals to cure the sick There are even older records from China and India Some ancient scripts describe the use of medicinal plants which have never been seen within European cultures Indeed all ancient civilizations have pictorial records of different foods herbs and spices being used for medical purposes However there are fundamental questions pertaining to the scientific evidence for the use of these agents or their extracts in modern medicine There have been considerable advances in scientific techniques over the last few decades These have been used to examine the composition and applications of traditional cures Modern science has also seen the investigation of herbs spices and botanicals beyond their traditional usage For example plants which have been used for digestion or medical ills since time immemorial are now being investigated for anti cancer properties or their toxicity using high throughput screening Techniques also include molecular biology cellular biochemistry physiology endocrinology and even medical imaging However much of the material relating to the scientific basis or applications of traditional foods herbs spices and botanicals is scattered among various sources The widespread applicability of foods or botanicals is rarely described and cautionary notes on toxicity are often ignored These questions are explored in Ancient and Traditional Foods Plants Herbs and Spices used in Cancer Features Provides an evidenced based approach in describing usage and applications of traditional foods and botanicals in prevention and treatment of cancer Contains chapters on biomedical research related to cancer studies Discusses extraction and analysis of active agents in vitro studies pre clinical investigations in animals and clinical studies Bridges modern day sciences with historical backgrounds related to foods and plants With contributions from leading international experts including those from world renowned institutions this book is a reference for oncologists physicians health scientists healthcare workers pharmacologists and research scientists
